Tax Lawyers Assisting Clients and Their Businesses

Do you suspect you may not be in compliance with the tax code? Are you being assessed for unpaid taxes? Do you have a dispute with the IRS? These and other tax issues can devastate your financial and emotional well-being. You do, however, have the right to consult a tax attorney who can help you obtain tax relief.

Kaplin Stewart offers our clients experienced, sophisticated and comprehensive tax planning and litigation services. If you need assistance with an offer in compromise to the IRS, a workout negotiation or an appearance before a tax review board, we can help.

Tax issues require a group effort to develop integrated strategies and to solve problems in a cost-effective manner. Our tax attorneys work with lawyers from our other firm practice groups. This team approach allows us to take advantage of all available tax benefits and to minimize your tax liabilities and obligations. We also consult with certified public accountants and other advisers to understand your finances.

Whether you need assistance with the tax liability of a closely held family business, a tax-deferring "like kind" transaction, or estate tax planning, you will find that our innovative problem solvers can answer your questions and help you achieve your goals. Our tax law practice includes:

- Entity structuring
- Formation and qualification of tax-exempt entities
