William J. Levant is a principal of the firm and a member of the Commercial Litigation Department. His practice focuses on representing creditors, particularly small- and medium-sized financial institutions, in foreclosure, collection, and workout matters, as creditors in both consumer and commercial bankruptcy cases, and on defending creditors in actions brought under the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and similar state statutes.

Bill has led several Continuing Legal Education seminars on creditors' rights topics and has written articles for a number of area publications.

Bill also handles claims work for several title insurance underwriters doing business in Pennsylvania, bringing litigation on behalf of their insureds to resolve title insurance claims by correcting the title defects from which they arise.
